

South Clairemont Adventure Camp is offering a great place for fun this summer. This day camp will provide activities for children that will promote confidence and self esteem. This camp will focus on the strengths of each individual child by promoting culture, dance, art and sports. This program will offer several different activities in which campers can choose from. Every Tuesday is beach day and Thursdays is field trip day. All activities are included in cost. Please check schedules out for more details. Campers must wear sneakers and comfortable clothes. Child must bring lunch everyday. Snacks will be provided. Please send your child prepared for daily activities.
